This period arts and crafts cottage has been maintained and renovated to the highest standards. Long range western views of city and mountains. Two wood burning fireplaces. Charming and about 3 minutes to shopping on Merrimon Avenue. Idyllic and private setting. Inside is charming with a capital C. Hardwood floors, screened porch, handsome deck, high ceilings. Second floor master is simply exquisite. This is quintessential Asheville with the big view! For the person who has been searching for charm close to town but with long range views, this is it. The owners have maintained and improved this original arts and crafts bungalow, from the two stacked stone fireplaces to the wall of windows with west facing views of mountains and city lights, it doesn't get better than this gem!
